EL

77 Avenue de la Grand armée

Paris June 24. 1867

My dear Mr Garrison

How I wish I could be with you on the 27th, at the gathering of your friends to pay you such deserved honors: but I cannot afford to go. With two daughters at school on the Continent, and exchange at 15 1/4 I have to economize. I am happy to say that my health is much better.

When in London in April, I had published the "Liberty Addresses" of Judge Chase & myself of 1844 & 1845. Will you please call on Sampson Low, 47 Ludgate Hill, & get a copy as soon as you can; for I feel sure you will take an interest in it.

Prof. Chas. D. Cleveland,

While you receive the chief honors, as you ought, as the pioneer of our noble cause, I am sure you will be happy to do justice to all who came up to your aid.

With the highest esteem

Yours very truly

Charles D. Cleveland

Prof. Chas. D. Cleveland,
Paris, June 24, 1867.